

Cookie Policy

Please read this Cookie Policy alongside our Privacy Policy.

Use of Cookies on our website

We use cookies to collect information. Cookies are small pieces of information sent by a web server to a web browser which allows the server to uniquely identify the browser on each page. You can learn more about cookies and how to disable/enable them here.

We use the following categories of cookies on our website:

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential in order to enable you to move around the website and use its features. Without these cookies, services you have asked for cannot be provided.

Performance Cookies

These cookies collect anonymous information on how people use our website. For example, we may use Adobe Analytics cookies to help us understand how customers arrive at our site, browse or use our site and highlight areas where we can improve areas e.g. navigation. The data stored by these cookies never shows personal details from which your individual identity can be established.

Functionality Cookies

These cookies remember choices you make e.g. which tool or service you are interested in. These can then be used to provide you with an experience more appropriate to your selections and to make the visits more tailored and pleasant. The information these cookies collect may be anonymised and they cannot track your browsing activity on other websites.

Social Media Cookies

These cookies allow you to share what you've been doing on the website on social media such as Facebook and Twitter. These cookies are not within our control. Please refer to the respective privacy policies for how their cookies work.

If you want to delete any cookies that are already on your computer, please refer to the help and support area on your internet browser for instructions on how to locate the file or directory that stores cookies. More information about how to do this is given in the link above.

If you want to learn more about what targeting and advertising cookies are on your device (whether or not related to us) and how to disable them you can do so here.

Use of Web Beacons.

Some of our web pages may contain electronic images known as Web beacons (sometimes known as clear gifs) that allow us to count users who have visited these pages. Web beacons collect only limited information which including a cookie number, time and date of a page view, and a description of the page on which the web beacon resides. These beacons do not carry any personally identifiable information.

We may also use web beacons or similar technology to learn whether or not emails sent to you have been opened.
